Superman? Batman? Wonder Woman? Take your pick. At one time or another, I think every kid dreams about being a superhero and I was certainly no different. Of course, growing up gives you a different perspective and it occurs to me while working in the field of philanthropy that although I never grew up to be one, I get to work with superheroes every day.

Like Superman’s alter ego, Clark Kent, many live and work among us completely unrecognized. But even absent the capes and masks, we know you are hard at work for the good of all in our community.

I see superheroes in donors who generously give to help others. In donations small and large, the greatest value of the gift is that it comes from the heart. People in Carlsbad, Loving and the surrounding area are amazingly generous!

I see superheroes in volunteers who give time to help in all ways possible. In today’s world, time is a commodity often more cherished than gold and giving it to others for their benefit is remarkable.

I see superheroes in local nonprofit organizations’ staffs. They give their talents to help others every day, worry about how to keep the lights on and care for their clients, as if they were family.

The Foundation is honored to be a part of this thriving community. Thank you to all the superheroes who work quietly behind the scenes to make this a great place to live, work and play.

Mike Antiporda is the executive director at the Carlsbad Community Foundation
Photos clockwise starting above: 2014-15 Board President Larry Henderson and Executive Director Mike Antiporda with Joe Stell (Humanitarian), John Heaton, Jr. on behalf of Julia Heaton (Arts & Humanities), Linda Dodd and Kathi Wixom of the United Way (Community Service Organization), Fred, Chris and Nancy Beard for the Beard Family (Pioneer), Mildred Mills on behalf of the late John Mills (Legacy) and Arch Slate (Special Recognition) with his wife Neldea.
At the Mayor's Southeast New Mexico Energy Summit, we tried something new and exciting! Rather than drawing for a prize that may wind up in a drawer somewhere, we did something to involve people in the act of giving!

Carlsbad Police Chief Kent Waller drew names for the winners of our "Grantmaker for the Day" contest. The three winners helped us select recipients of a $100 mini-grant that the Foundation awarded to local non-profit organizations. Edgar Bell of Killeen, TX selected ESA Packs for Hunger, Tess Gadbury of Carlsbad selected the Carlsbad Literacy Center and Dan Spivey of Roswell selected the Carlsbad Community Kitchen.

We're so proud to serve these organizations and many others that help people throughout our community and South Eddy County!

Cockburn Charitable Trust helps SENM

The Foundation is very appreciative of a recent donation by the Cockburn Charitable Trust. Maggie Suetta Boles Cockburn passed away in 2009 at the age of 100. It was her wish, however, that upon her death the trust would continue to give back to the residents of Southeastern New Mexico. Her generous gift will help the Foundation's efforts in support of education and improving the quality of life for area residents.
The Carlsbad Community Foundation is pleased to spread the joy of the season, by awarding our 2015 Christmas Mini-Grants to 16 organizations. These mini-grants are to support the extra expenses around Christmas that many local non-profit organizations face in serving the needs of our community.

Thank you to all for the work that you do: Battered Families Shelter, Boys & Girls Club, Carlsbad Community Kitchen, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), Child Development Center, Carlsbad Literacy Program, Carlsbad Transitional Housing, Christmas Anonymous, CMC Auxiliary, ESA Packs for Hunger, Grace House, Jonah’s House, Juvenile Reintegration Center, Lakeview Christian Home, Landsun Homes and Southeast New Mexico Community Action.

Cavern Theater’s future looks bright

The Foundation is excited to work with Creative Carlsbad, which is partnering with the City of Carlsbad to renovate the historic theater. The building was donated to the city by the late Robert S. Light. While an addition will be built on the north side and the interior re-done to transform it into a performing arts center, the artist rendering above shows how the original look of the theater’s exterior will be maintained.
